

Stair Nosing

The B.A.T. Stair Nosing Trim is one of the only types of Stairnosing that is tiled into place as work progresses.

Although maintaining a small and relatively unobtrusive appearance because of its size, the Stairnosing Trim still provides the necessary safety features by providing a non slip surface that can be walked upon, whilst providing an edge that protects against tile installed on risers from foot traffic that may damage.

The non-slip part of the Stair Nosing – the insert – is available in four standard colours to contrast the basic range of trim colours and to suit various tile colours or applications.

Stairnosing can be used both internally and externally.
